Abstract

World has become a global village and various types of gender, colour, race, culture and ideas are mixed up with another. Different countries of the world have own laws, traditions, ethics and customs. It is impossible for them to live in isolation and produced everything which is needed for domestic affairs. Therefore foreign policy has own importance for the relationship to other countries. In this article we will try to explain the need of foreign policy and the principles in the guidance of Seerah of Holly Prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H) which are compulsory for the relationship to other countries will be the subject of our discussion. Seerah of the Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H) is the basic key for the guidance of every field of life affairs. In foreign policy the Holly Prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H) introduced laws and principles for the first time in the world which are on the basis of equality, prosperity and are for the best interest of the mankind. The letters which were wrote by the Holly Prophet (P.B.U.H) for various kings of the world and the agreements of various countries are the best examples in this field. The details will be mentioned in below lines.

Keywords: Foreign policy, princess agreement, prosperity, dignity, global, isolation, equality, judgment, companions, saddened, kindness,

Almighty Allah says in Holy Quran:

"O believers! The polytheists are impure, so after this year they will not be able to come near Masjid Haram, and if you are afraid of scarcity, it is not difficult for Almighty Allah will enrich
